NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS,
JAMES R. HINDMAN, of Adair county.

Judge W. H. Yost, National Democrat, will deliver a speech on political issues, at Owingsville October 11th, County Court day. He speaks at Mt. Sterling September 25th, at Flemingsburg October 7th, and at Sharpsburg October 9th.

Ohio got only about one third of McKinley's best appointments, but there is probably no diminution of pie-hunger in that State by reason of it.

Hindman continues to present pure Democracy from the stump to the people of the Western end of the State. Senator Lindsay is figuring on 75,000 votes for Hindman.

A certain measure of political peace for a few years is a most desirable thing, but if the friends of free silver insist that it isn't dead it must be hit every time it wiggles.

Debs and other agitators are trying their best to commit organized labor definitely to socialism. The conference of the labor leaders at St. Louis last week was marked by socialistic sentiment.

It is immaterial to the Pennsylvania Popocrats whether the Republican majority against them is 200,000 or 500,000. In State elections they reaffirmed Bryanism with a whoop and some fights.

Capt. Jack Gross, ex-Senator and ex-Adjutant General, was both a Blackburn and a Bryan man the past year, but he says: "I think the bottom has dropped out of the argument for free silver."

Gov. Todd, of Louisville, has incurred the antagonism of a considerable number of the industrial men of the Republican party in that city and they are supporting Weaver against him. It looks like Weaver will be elected easily, as the silver Democrats and National Democrats are warmly for him.

The Pennsylvania Popocratic Committee "harmonized" by removing Wm. F. Harty from the National Popocratic Committee. Harty was once National Chairman of the Democratic party. He was not zealous in the cause of Bryanism, and was rather unceremoniously kicked out of his position as Pennsylvania member of the National Popocratic Committee. Harty used to be a pretty fair sort of a Democrat before free silver became the fashion and a test of Democracy.

The conservative labor leaders like Powderly and Gompers are being thrown overboard by the radical followers of Debs and Sovereign. Powderly has been generally denounced by them for his support of the gold standard. The United Labor League of Western Pennsylvania adopted a resolution condemning Gompers' remarks against the revolutionary utterances at the recent St. Louis conference of the labor leaders. The Chicago labor convention of Sept. 27th bids fair to be given over to wild socialistic sentiments.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Carrington.

Cutting millet is the order of the day.

We are having very dry weather now.

Mrs. Alice Page, after visiting relatives for a few days in this vicinity, returned to her home in Jessamine county on Thursday last week.

James P. Hamilton returned on Wednesday last week from Lebanon, Ohio, where he had been under treatment of Dr. Curry. His health is greatly improved.

White Sulphur Springs.

(Too late for last week's issue.)

Very dry in this vicinity.

Great deal of sickness in this vicinity.

Your correspondent happened to be at Salt Lick Sunday, Aug. 29th, and accompanied the Sunday-school excursion people to Yale. The crowd numbered about three hundred. They all marched down to Yale depot headed by a small gentleman that looked like W. R. Stephens, and the White Sulphur Band. They all boarded Capt. Eaton's narrow-gauge, rustic-seated, flat cars and pulled for Yale with four loads and left about one hundred people on the road waiting, but could not be accommodated on account of room. Everything went smoothly and nicely until we approached the Alfrey trestle and then Mr. Stephens and every one else began to huddle and beg the Lord to be with them on this trip. But this little scare soon left them and they landed on the ground at 11 o'clock and marched to the Cassidy grove, where prayer was offered and a speech made by Rev. Templeman. The dinner was spread by Mrs. T. C. Ragland, Mrs. J. Green, Mrs. I. Shouse, Mrs. W. R. Stephens, and, in fact, all the good women of the neighborhood, and every one was filled and plenty left.

Craig.

News is scarce, but there is plenty of visiting.

We are glad to note the health of this community is good.

Miss Lida Williams commenced teaching school Monday at Craig.

Misses Myrtle and Pearl Toy attended church at Wyoming Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Warren made a social visit to Mrs. Maria Stamper Sunday eve.

Butler Toy and family, Sam Shultz and family visited James Toy, of near Wyoming, Sunday.

Mrs. Butler Toy visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goodan, near Owingsville, last week.

Hugh Lowry, wife and children; Mrs. Elizabeth Wells and little son, of Roe's Run, visited Sam Shultz and family Sunday.

Felix Warren wishes to extend thanks to Mr. Ben Perry and Mr. John A. Ramsey for their liberal donations to the new school-house at Craig.

Mrs. Cynthia Toy attended the Sunday-school picnic in Shelby Goodpastor's woods and reports a delightful time; plenty to eat, no whiskey, and every one happy.

Rev. Trotter, of Maysville, has returned home, after a two-weeks' meeting in the Baptist Church here. Bro. Trotter is an able speaker, had good congregations throughout the service, and had several additions to the church.

There has been nothing in your paper from Farmers for so long I presume you think we have vanished from the globe, but, indeed, we have not. We are still in the land of the living, doing our best to live until the long-promised time of prosperity arrives; but if it does not come before the watermelon season is over we are lost, lost, lost.

Rev. C. E. Boswell, pastor of the Methodist Churches at this place and Morehead, left Tuesday for Willmore, Ky., where he has accepted a professorship of Ancient Languages for the coming year. To say that Brother Boswell was loved by every one would be untrue, but he was certainly beloved by his own people, admired by other Christians and duly respected by all classes. He was an elegant speaker, highly educated, and spoke with "boldness," datterling no one, and has been a power of much good to this place, and Morehead also. May the Lord send just such another man in his place; is the prayer of these two churches he has left. He was accompanied by his new home by Miss Jennie Cushman, who will attend Asberry College the coming term.

Knob Lick.
Some rain last week.

Corn is late, what little there is. Some cattle have passed here this week to be grazed until Court day.

Misses Stewart and Quisenberry have got back from the Institute to their schools.

There seems to be an epidemic of colds in this and other communities; also fever.

Shed Williams passed here with two cows. He says the mountain people are asking more than they do below.

Your correspondent visited the Grange City G. A. R. reunion. There was quite a number of old soldiers. While their steps were animated by the old popular airs you could see there was not the spring or elasticity of former years. May their remaining steps be in the path of peace and happiness. For quietness and a general good time I do not think the reunion could be excelled.

The Olympia correspondent of another paper takes a crack at me and THE OUTLOOK. I would say to our friend that his talk to Populists is the vilest kind of boss.

The Populist party is a party of principle; a party that was not born to die until it has filled its mission of reform; a party that looks on principle from a foundation and not on pie or on the traditions of an old party name. Now, you say we cannot get to either end of the road. I would say: Don't let that trouble you. We are going right ahead. When we meet the free-silver Democrats we hope they will have the manhood to give the way, as they have borrowed or surreptitiously taken the only life—that is, free silver—they have in their decaying body. We intend to push fearlessly on for government issue of money to the people, the referendum and government ownership of railroads and some other reforms, that the plain, common people need, that your free-silver, regenerated Democracy could not see to put in your platform. Now, as we have infused the only life you have—that is, free silver—we propose to let you enjoy it for a season, for against another Presidential election the Republicans will have a free silver bill passed and then we will not have to push you fellows out of the way with advanced thought and reforms. As to the gold-bug Democrats and Republicans we have no fears of an open enemy. It is the traitor, the Hessian, the Butlerite, the Weaverite, the fusionist, the fellows that want to set up a partnership with only one partner, those fellows that hollow "Oh, Lord!" but never do Oh, Lord, that we fear. The po-
